

EXPRESS SCRIPTS SUPPORTS PRICE OF FREEDOM GALA

Express Scripts was a proud sponsor of the second annual “Price of Freedom” Gala, held on February 18, 2012 benefiting the Joshua Chamberlain Society (JCS).

The Joshua Chamberlain Society provides aid for severely wounded military service members and the families of killed-in-action members of our military. The evening honored the current JCS heroes while raising funds that will allow JCS to support additional heroes.

Express Scripts employees in attendance included Ann Stroud, director, proposals; Dave Zucker, director, client contracting; Frederick Webb, director, IT; Richard Hauser, senior legal counsel; Andy Edwards, account director and their guests.

Ms. Stroud remarked, “This is a fitting tribute to those military heroes who have given their all so we might enjoy the freedoms we have today.”
