10th Annual MOAA/Jeff Peck Memorial Golf Classic

Express Scripts' Federal Pharmacy Services and Government Affairs divisions donated $12,500 to the 10th Annual MOAA/Jeff Peck Memorial Golf Classic. The event took place on May 8th at Westfields Golf Club in Clifton, Virginia.

All proceeds from the golf classic go toward the MOAA Scholarship Fund which provides grants and educational assistance to children of service members for undergraduate education. In the first nine years, the golf classic has raised over $700,000 for the MOAA Scholarship Fund.

MOAA's president, Vice Admiral Norbert Ryan joined the Express Scripts team and helped get the 1st place finish out of more than one hundred golfers. Express Scripts employees that attended include Tom Jenkins, senior director, Contract Administration, Nick Jacobs, director, Client Contracting, and Michael Johnston, senior manager, Communications.

The Military Officers Association of America (MOAA) is the nation's largest association of military officers. The association has over 380,000 members from every branch of service. Membership is open to active duty, National Guard, Reserve, retired and former commissioned officer and warrant officers of the following uniformed services: Army, Marine Corps, Navy, Air Force, Coast Guard, Public Health Service, and National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration.

MOAA plays an active role in military personnel matters, including legislation affecting the career force, retired community and veteran of uniformed services. The administration mission also includes career transition assistance, improved member products, benefit counseling, educational assistance and involvement in military professionalism activities.
