Greater St. Louis Honor Flight

Express Scripts recently donated $2,500 to Greater St. Louis Honor Flight. The event took place on Saturday, April 6 at Chaminade College Preparatory School located in St. Louis, Missouri.

Greater St. Louis Honor Flight presented a screening of Honor Flight, One last Mission at the event. The documentary follows four living World War II veterans and their Midwest communities coming together to give them a trip to Washington, DC to see the memorial that was constructed in 2004 for WWII veterans, nearly 60 years after the war.

Honor Flight is a nonprofit organization that has flown over 100,000 veterans to Washington, DC to see their memorial. There are 117 Honor Flight locations across the United States.

The Greater St. Louis Honor Flight was created by two St. Louis women who wanted to ensure that local veterans had a chance to see their memorial. Since 2009, Greater St. Louis Honor Flight has flown 22 Honor Flights, serving more than 550 veterans.
